It is stated that Silence was overheard by Kiely sharply criticising the efficiency of the intter's father in the capacity of chief of police. The altercation that followed resulted in Silence shooting Kiely in the hand. Kiely then shot Silence in the abdomen.

Pleased With Kendall.

Pleased With Kendall.

Ezra Kendall, after an absence from Richmond of several years, made his appearance here yesterday, and delighted two audiences at the Academy with his drollery and quaint humor. Mr. Kendall is a comedian whose methods somethat resemble those of the late Sol. Smith Russell. Ins work is of that quiet nature which is so effective when employed by a comedian of Mr. Kendall's ability. To use a well worn expression, he is as casy as an old shoe.

"The Vinegar Buyer" is a comedy in which Mr. Kendall's is given the opportunity for the kind of work so well suited to him. The supporting company is good.

Richmond drummers who go to Manchester to sell goods must, under the proposed ordinance, pay the $50.

There are several large concerns in Richmond employing numbers of Manchester people, who have been selling goods to local trade. The imposition of a tax of $50 upon them they consider as a hardship, and when the time comes they will have representatives present to make a protest.

Appealed to Prejudice.

These pictures, he said, appealed strong-to race prejudice. Similar arrests also, Mr. McLaurin said ad been made at Indianola, and it was found upon the hearing of the case that Cincinnati concern engaged in publish a Cincinnati concern engaged in publishing the pictures in question had many agents out in the interest of these works. The men were tried and some of them sent out of the country, and Mr. McLourin expressed surprise that any community should have permitted them to be tried. He said the penalty imposed by the law was entirely too small, and expressed the opinion that the death penalty would not be too severe. He added that the arrests were not because the men were selling photographs of the President or of Booker Washington, but because they were selling lewd pictures.

Mr. Foraker said that he had never heard of the Cincinnati firm mentioned as responsible for the publication of the pictures. The Senate adjourned until Monday.
